*Preparation for worship begins as you enter the sanctuary.
Please consider others by ending all conversations as you are seated. Read today's Scripture and words of hymns.
Pray silently for God to speak and bless this service.
Do greet those around you after the service.*

Prayer of Confession

Father of all truth and all mercy, we come to You confessing our sins with which we have offended You. By the sacrifice of Jesus Christ, who was bound in our place, You have freed us from the chains of sin, yet we persist in clinging to idols. We are slow to learn, prone to forget, and weak to climb; we are in the foothills when we should be on the heights; we are shamed by our graceless hearts, our prayerless days, our poverty of love, our sloth in the heavenly race, our sullied consciences, our wasted hours, and our unspent opportunities. Forgive us, we ask, through the power of the blood of Jesus Christ, which cleanses us from all unrighteousness, and frees us from the guilt and condemnation of sin; by the power of Him who was bound for us, free us from the power of sin as well, that we might grow in holiness and purity, and that we might live for Your glory. Amen.
