Call to Worship Ps 22:22-24

I will tell of your name to my brothers; in the midst of the congregation I will praise you: You who fear the Lord, praise him! All you offspring of Jacob, glorify him, and stand in awe of him, all you offspring of Israel! For he has not despised or abhorred the affliction of the afflicted, and he has not hidden his face from him, but has heard, when he cried to him.

Reading of the Law Exodus 20:17 (Pew pg. 61/LP pg. 76)

Prayer of Confession

Heavenly Father, we have sinned against you in our thoughts, words, and deeds. We find ourselves guilty this morning and deserving of your wrath and condemnation. We have not humbled ourselves before You, at least not for very long. And we confess that we have not sought the good of our neighbors. Lord, instead of being quick to listen, we are quick to defend ourselves. Instead of seeking to love others, we demand to be heard by others. Convict us in our pride, O Lord, and create in each one of us humble and peacemaking spirits. In Jesus name we pray. Amen.

Questions:

1. What were some of Paul's reasons for calling the Jewish leaders in Rome? Explain.
2. What was Paul's message to the Jews at Rome? What reasons does he give for the persistence of so many in unbelief? What reaction did he expect the Gentiles would show?
3. List the main facts with which Luke summarizes Paul's ministry as a prisoner at Rome (verses 30, 31). Consider the influence Paul had during those years through people coming to him, and through letters he wrote to the churches he had visited.
