Prayer of Confession

Holy and loving Father, we rejoice in Your marvelous grace to us; That You would send Your only Son, To be born into this world of sin and misery, To suffer and to die for sinners like us. We rejoice that through Jesus' life we have true righteousness. We rejoice that because of Jesus' death we have full forgiveness, and we rejoice that because of Jesus' resurrection, death has lost its sting! Yet even as we rejoice, we recognize the coldness of our hearts. We are often distracted, often fretful, and so quick to lose sight of the reason for true joy. So enable us again to set our hearts and minds upon You. Fill us with wonder at the coming of our Lord Jesus; that He would stoop so low for us and can sympathize with us in our weakness. Teach us to rejoice more wholeheartedly in the beauty of who You are. Be our portion and our chief delight. May our hearts be filled with glad songs of salvation throughout each passing hour. Our God, we bless Your great name! We joyfully look forward to when You will wipe the tears from our eyes, and we rejoice that we are reconciled to You forever by the blood of Christ, in whose name we pray. Amen.

3. What does it mean that the serpent will eat dust all his days? What does this tell you about his reign?
