Ps. 1:1-6

Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the wicked, nor stands in the way of sinners, nor sits in the seat of scoffers; but his delight is in the law of the Lord, and on his law he meditates day and night. He is like a tree planted by streams of water that yields its fruit in its season, and its leaf does not wither. In all that he does, he prospers. The wicked are not so, but are like chaff that the wind drives away. Therefore the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous; for the Lord knows the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked will perish.

Reading of the Law

Exodus 20:4-6

(Pew pg. 61/LP pg. 76)

Prayer of Confession

Almighty and most merciful Father, we have erred and strayed from your ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against your holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done, and we have done those things which we ought not to have done; and apart from your grace, there is no health in us. O Lord, have mercy upon us. Spare all those who confess their faults. Restore all those who are penitent, according to your promises declared to all people in Christ Jesus our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake, that we may now live a godly, righteous, and sober life, to the glory of your holy Name. Amen.

Assurance of Pardoning Grace

Heb 12:28-29

Therefore let us be grateful for receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, and thus let us offer to God acceptable worship, with reverence and awe, for our God is a consuming fire.

Scripture Reading

1 Sam. 1:19-28

(Pew pg. 224/LP pg. 283)

Heidelberg Catechism Q80

pg. 886

80. Q. How does the Lord's Supper differ from the Roman Catholic Mass?

A. The Lord's Supper declares to us that all our sins are completely forgiven through the one sacrifice of Jesus Christ, which he himself accomplished on the cross once for all. It also declares to us that the Holy Spirit grafts us into Christ, who with his true body is now in heaven at the right hand of the Father where he wants us to worship him. But the Mass teaches that the living and the dead do not have their sins forgiven through the suffering of Christ unless Christ is still offered for them daily by the priests. It also teaches that Christ is bodily present under the form of bread and wine where Christ is therefore to be worshiped. Thus the Mass is basically nothing but a denial of the one sacrifice and suffering of Jesus Christ and a condemnable idolatry.

Serving Others: Stewards

1 Peter 4:7-11

(Pew pg.1016/LP pg. 1262)

1. How Servants Conduct Themselves

2. How Servants Use Their Homes

3. How Servants Do Ministry

Questions:

1. How does knowing the ending help motivate us to do good works in this present moment?
2. What are some of the challenges to hospitality? How can we work around some of these challenges?
3. List a number of different gifts that God gives us to use in ministry. Which ones has he given to you and how can you use them in the church?
4. How are we to speak the Gospel to others? What happens if we are “wishy-washy” in our presentation? How can we work to improve our witness in this area?

Announcements

- Mini Conference: The Session of GSPC is proud to present "Spiritual Conversations: Building Blocks for Evangelism", a mini conference on July 12-13. Dr. Ted Powers, MNA Mid-West will be helping us understand and apply the Gospel to our everyday conversations with friends and neighbors. This conference kicks off Friday night with pizza at 5:30 pm and teaching starting at 6pm. We'll reconvene Saturday morning @ 8:30 am with a continental breakfast and teaching @ 9 am. A $5 donation is suggested. We hope to see you there!
- Save the Date: Fundraiser Car Wash for Ireland in the Church parking lot, Saturday, July 6 from 9 am - 1 pm.
- Missions Summer Reading Program: Books will be on a cart in the narthex and include reading at three levels: (1) elementary, (2) middle school, and (3) young adult/adult. Also available will be a booklet in which to record your book title/name of missionary and something that you learned from the book. We will aim to have the ice cream social before school starts in the fall to share what we have read. It is so encouraging to read of God's work around the world and through the centuries. It can help grow our faith. Questions? - Please see Holly Savage.
