Reading of the Law

Exodus 20:17

(Pew pg. 61/LP pg. 76)

Prayer of Confession

We poor sinners confess before you, our God and Creator, that we have sinned gravely and in various ways against you, not only with outward gross sins, but much more with internal, innate blindness, unbelief, doubts, faintheartedness, impatience, pride, evil greed, secret envy, hatred and jealousy, as well as other evil emotions. You, our Lord and God, recognize this in us very well, but sadly we do not recognize it sufficiently. We sorrow over these sins and wholeheartedly desire to repent and turn away from our unrighteousness. We humbly implore your mercy and grace and seek your forgiveness through the precious blood of your dear Son, our Redeemer, Jesus Christ, in whose name we pray. Amen.

Assurance of Pardoning Grace

Heb. 12:28-29

Therefore let us be grateful for receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, and thus let us offer to God acceptable worship, with reverence and awe, for our God is a consuming fire.

2. Friends

3. Faith

Questions:

1. If Paul arrived in Corinth dejected, as his letter to the Corinthians seems to indicate, how was Paul able to counsel his way out of his downcast frame of mind? Explain.
2. Describe a true blue friend. How can Christians better exert these qualities in the church? Explain.
3. Fear is the opposite of faith, but in what ways. List the many ways that your faith in Jesus Christ conquers all fear.
4. We often think of the plethora of problems that existed in the church of Corinth. In what ways are problems, whether personal or corporate in nature, in what ways are these problems evidence of the Holy Spirit's working in your life? Explain.
